ATTACKS

Sneak Attack	Once per turn, Mario deals an extra 10d6 damage to a creature he hits with a finesse or ranged weapon attack when he has advantage or an ally threatens the target.
Cunning Action [B]	Mario may Dash, Disengage, or Hide as a bonus action.
Uncanny Dodge [Rx]	When an attacker Mario can see hits him with an attack, he may halve the attack's damage.
Evasion	When subjected to an effect allowing a Dexterity saving throw for half damage, Mario instead takes no damage on a success and only half damage on a failure.
Reliable Talent	Any ability check using a proficient skill or tool treats rolls lower than 10 as a 10.
Blindsense	Mario is aware of hidden or invisible creatures within 10 feet.
Slippery Mind	Mario gains proficiency in Wisdom saving throws.
Elusive	No attack roll has advantage against Mario while he is conscious.
Stroke of Luck	Once per short rest, Mario may turn a missed attack into a hit or treat a failed ability check as a natural 20.
Master of Intrigue	Mario mimics speech patterns and accents easily and excels at maintaining false identities.
Master of Tactics [B]	Mario may use the Help action as a bonus action at a range of 30 feet.
Insightful Manipulator	After observing or conversing with someone for one minute, Mario can assess whether the creature surpasses him in Intelligence, Wisdom, Charisma, or class levels.
Misdirection [Rx]	When targeted by an attack while another creature is nearby, Mario may cause the attack to target the other creature instead.
Soul of Deceit	Mario's thoughts cannot be read by telepathy unless he allows it, and he presents false thoughts when magically compelled.
